St Hugh's Parish Hall CCTV cameras:

St Hugh's Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) has recently become aware that the bar stewards using the parish hall were required to install CCTV camera equipment last year as a condition of being granted a license to serve alcohol on the premises. The council was unaware of the extent of this at the time. The contract with the stewards terminated last month and the equipment was removed when they vacated the premises. It is possible during the few months that the equipment was in use, connected with their business, that images of some of the members of our parish community may have been recorded. If you are concerned about this, please have a word with Fr Paul or Margaret Burns, our parish safeguarding representative.
